

Zonta's Honorary Members

Ms. Sheri Jones

From an early beginning, Sheri has excelled in giving back. Even before she was an Honors Graduate of Michigan State University she worked to help others. Like all Zonta members Sheri is a highly regarded professional woman who uses her voice and her hands to make a difference in the lives of others. Sheri is a professional leader who has received numerous awards during her nearly 30+ year career in journalism. Inducted as an Honorary Member of Zonta Club of Lansing in May of 2011. To this day she remains a friend to Zonta Club of Lansing. During those years she was always stepping up when called for her expertise and leadership. Always ready to accept the request of ZCOL to emcee a fundraiser or helping Zonta's Foundation by speaking on the merits of community service to others at Zonta meetings or events. During her friendship with and hard work for, she was awarded the Women of Achievement Award in 2017. Because of a limited amount of space, only a few of her favorites awards are listed below. Google Ms. Jones for more information or turn on Channel 6 TV news at 6:00 and 11:00 pm to see for yourself a Zonta leader in action.
